KING OF THE NASHWAAK

RISE AND FALL OF ALEX. GIBSON OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

At Age of Ninety-Two Years Great Captain of Industry Sees His Properties Sold to Pay the Mortgage—Made a Fortune in Lumber on the Shores of Fundy and Built Great Cotton Mills.

According to New Brunswick papers, the property of the Gibson Railway & Lumber Co., at Gibson and other points in the province, is to be sold to satisfy mortgages aggregating half a million dollars. Full description of the property will soon be advertised, and of such variety are the holdings and so numerous the items that it is said the advertisement will fill twenty-eight columns of a newspaper. With this sale will depart from the hands of the veteran Alexander Gibson, the last of the great estate which he assembled and at least nominally directed during a longer working life than is granted to ninety-nine men in a hundred.

The majority of the people of New Brunswick may be described as farmers, but they are nearly always lumbermen first of all.

The spruce log has been the mainstay of the province for half a century, as the pine log previously was, and among the men who have brought the forest reserves of New Brunswick down to the dangerpoint, Alexander Gibson is easily first.

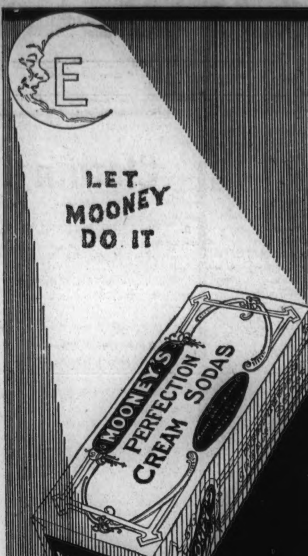

He was the big lord in the comparatively small province. Even J. R. Booth on the Ottawa, having regard to the extent of his field of operation, looked hardly so large as Alexander Gibson, along the St. John River. To use a phrase coined and not unknown elsewhere, derived from the name of another large lumber operator, who preceded him, he was for a generation "the main John Glazier" of his province.

Born in the last year of the reign of George III., it was little past the middle of the century when Mr. Gibson had made a fortune as a lumber operator on the shore of the Bay of Fundy. In those days there is said to have been a crudity about his book keeping. Whether he kept any books at all or not it was noticed that he usually tore up his receipts. But he was young and vigorous, and there was a large margin of profit in lumber, and therefore he prospered. When the timber along the bay shore had been pretty well cut or burned away about the end of the United States civil war, he moved 100 miles up the St. John River. There, opposite Fredericton, where the Nashwaak joins the main stream, Alexander Gibson built first a lumber mill, then a church, then the town of Marysville. He became the "King of the Nashwaak." His lumber operations ex-

For Skin Health

A lifetime of disfigurement and suffering often results from improper treatment of the skin or neglect of simple skin affections. Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, affords the purest, sweetest and most economical method of caring for the complexion, preventing minor eruptions from becoming chronic, and speedily dispelling severe eczemas and other torturing humors, itchings and irritations, from infancy to age.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists everywhere. Foster Bros. & Chem. Co., Sole Price, Boston, Mass., U.S.A. Cuticura Soap on the care of skin and scalp.

LESS TIME IN THE KITCHEN

MORE TIME IN THE FRONT ROOM

That's your reward if you let MOONEY'S BISCUITS take the place of the bread and biscuits you bake yourself.

You'll find MOONEY'S a delightful substitute for your own best efforts—the family will like them. Because come to you straight from the oven in the big Winnipeg factory.

They have that freshness and crispness only to be found in a newly made biscuit. No other biscuit can come to your table as fresh from the oven as MOONEY'S.

Get the big package or the sealed tin—
Both of them damp proof, dust proof, dirt proof—and

"LET MOONEY DO IT"

ceeded those of any single operator in that part of the world either before or since. There have been those who cut more logs, saved more feet of plank or board, or shipped more wood products abroad, but Mr. Gibson did the whole business himself.

His men felled his trees on his timber limits, his stream drivers brought the logs to his mills, he himself owned the tugs and scows that rafted the sawn product to the seacoast, he chartered the steamships that freighted it to the European market. When he acquired timber limits remote from accessible streams, he built saw mills in the woods, and also 200 miles of railway from the Nashwaak to the Gulf of St. Lawrence to land the output of these at the nearest waterway.

Thirty years ago he built one of the largest cotton mills in Canada, at Marysville. He ruled his town with an iron hand. It was well for every one to go to his Methodist church; it was certainly bad for anyone to be seen there for liquor. In politics he took a keen, though intermittent interest. Though his county (York) has a very large Orange vote, Mr. Gibson carried George E. Foster in 1886 by 1,500 majority, in spite of Foster's friendship for the remedial bill. Four years later Foster had to get a constituency elsewhere. It was understood Mr. Gibson expected to sell his railway, and Mr. Foster was no longer any use to him. Under ordinary conditions York has been beaten rather often fighting ground, but when Mr. Gibson saw fit to go into the contest his candidate was always a strong favorite. At such times, of the 400 electors in Marysville, about 375 usually voted his way.

Several years ago he sold his railroad, and it is now part of the Intercolonial; soon after it was built his cotton mill went into the combine, and not long afterwards all his property went into the hands of trustees. Indeed the forthcoming sale is a logical event in the sequence of his later life. In his last decade or two success forsook him. Perhaps a system suited to the conduct of larger affairs didn't naturally evolve from his early methods of doing business. Perhaps age did not bring with it increased sagacity. Now, in his ninety-second year, this lumber king, cotton spinner, railroad owner, local dictator, left with nothing but the consolation that he had great things in his day and generation.

Joe's Empty Sleeve.

"I didn't know Mr. Downey had only one arm," has been a frequent exclamation amongst those who have met the new superintendent of the asylum for the first time during the past fortnight. The enquirers will be glad to know that when Mr. Downey's right arm recovers from a sprain received in a recent fall he will place it in his coat sleeve again, and will have two arms once more.—Orillia Packet.

An Old New York Grave.

The oldest grave in Trinity churchyard, New York city, so far as can be determined, is that of Richard Churcher. The stone on the grave indicates that the boy died at the age of five and a half years, April 6, 1661.

Bleaching Ivory.

Ivory may be bleached by placing it in a glass dish mixed with turpentine and exposing it for two or three days to the sunlight.

His First Elevator

Walter Damrosch was describing a very ignorant foreign critic.

"In short," Mr. Damrosch ended, "he was as ignorant of music as old Jed Shucks and his wife were of city ways."

"Jed was describing, at a dancin', his recent visit to New York."

"An' we went to a big department shop," he said, "an' we got inter one of them 'ere things wot whizzes ye clean up to the top—wot in tarnation is their name, Mar?"

Shop-lifters, Jededar! Mrs. Shucks replied.

The chances of "Worm" Gravel Worm Extremities pass it within reach of all, and it can be got at any drugist's.

Willis—"I wonder if there will ever be a universal peace." Gillis—"Sure, all they've got to do is to get the nations to agree that in case of war the winner pays the pensions."—Puck.

The Flies that are now in your kitchen and dining-room were probably feasting on some indescribable nastiness less than an hour ago, and as a single fly often carries many thousands of disease germs attached to its hairy body, it is the duty of every housekeeper to assist in exterminating this worst enemy of the human race. Wilson's Fly Pads kill flies in such immense quantities as cannot be approached by any other fly killer.

Ordinary white chalk such as is used in the school room for blackboard work is invaluable as a household remedy for removing spots from white clothes and shoes.

Minard's Liniment cures gargle in cows.

Wine stains on table linen are removed by sprinkling them with salt, moistening with hot water and then pouring boiling water through the stain until it disappears.

Through indolence in eating green fruit in summer many children become subject to cholera morbus caused by irritating acids that act violently on the delicate system of the child suffering from the drain. In such cases the safest and surest remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It will check the inflammation and save the child's life.

"Quite a remarkable thing happened at the banquet last night."

Frost & Wood
No. 3 Binder
Does Better Work

Because of the E-centric Spocket Wheel the No. 3 Binder makes a neater, more tightly compressed bundle and saves considerable time. Discharges the bundle faster, too, than the ordinary binder. Remember, no other binder has the Eccentric Spocket Wheel. Neither is any other binder so light in draft. At all points where there is a possibility of friction occurring the makers of No. 3 Binder have provided Large Roller Bearings.
That's why the Frost & Wood
No. 3 runs so smoothly and easily—one reason why it gives so many more years of service.
Another reason for its great durability is the strong, powerful construction of its back bone, which we would like to explain to you fully. Drop in at your nearest convenience and talk things over with us. We are confident that the Frost & Wood No.
3 is the binder for you. Give us a chance to prove it.

Frost & Wood
No. 8 Mower

Cut your crop of grass with the Frost & Wood No. 8 Mower this season. Because it is built on the Internal Gear principle, No. 8 will do the work faster and more satisfactorily than an ordinary mower.

TIGER RAKE

Use the Tiger Rake for raking your hay. The teeth are curved exactly right to pick up everything the mower cuts. You can dump it by foot or hand. Tiger is durable as well as sure working, being all steel except tooth rall and shafts. Be sure and see these Frost & Wood Haying machines. Call on us right away.
